NEBRASKA ADMINISTRATIVE CODE

TITLE 218 - DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

CHAPTER 1 - FACSIMILE TRANSMITTED DOCUMENTS

001. The Department of Labor will accept legible facsimile transmitted documents as provided in this title.
002. Facsimile transmissions will be accepted for all documents except the weekly Claim for Benefits form.
003. (1) Facsimile documents received in the appropriate department office by 5:00 p.m. local time, on a regular workday, excluding Saturday, Sunday or legal holidays, will be deemed to be timely filed as of that day. Except as provided in (2) of this section, documents must be legible to be deemed received and timely filed. Date and time of receipt will be determined by the department's facsimile machine. Legibility of the document being received will be determined by the department.
- (2) If a facsimile is determined to be illegible, the department shall, where possible, notify the sender by facsimile transmission or otherwise that the document was illegible. If the sender resubmits a legible document before the close of the next business day after notification, the document shall be deemed timely filed. Date and time of receipt of the resubmitted facsimile shall be determined by the department's facsimile machine.
- (3) For purposes of this section, a partially transmitted document shall be deemed an illegible document.
004. If the date for filing such documents falls upon a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, such filing shall be considered timely if received by 5:00 p.m. local time on the next business day.
